Dear Mr. Kavanaugh:

Please allow me to thank you for sending Colette Albertson to Brother James Court to handle our account. For many years I have purchased print, television and radio advertising for one organization or another. Never before have I been so well taken care of, even though our purchases are small.

Colette truly looks out for our very best interest in bringing us opportunities such as the recent cooking show at the convention center. Most nonprofits would not consider that audience as one for promotion. Let me tell you that we made lots and lots of new friends that evening. Many people have never heard of us, and thanks to Colette's good work we were visible to a whole new population of potential donors and prospects.

I simply cannot say enough about Colette. She was able to get Pamela to cut a commercial on her last day in Springfield because she knew how much that would mean to me and to Brother James Court. Colette has gone more than the extra mile, calling to make certain we are taken care of and are happy. We are happy!!

If there is ever a time that you need to use this letter of thanks and recommendation, please do not hesitate to do so. Thanks again for Colette.

Sincerely,

Barbara Turner
